Peek Inside the Book

I wish girls fell down and died of hunger in the streets, instead of creeping to their garrets and the hospitals. I should like to see their dead bodies collected together in some open place for the crowd to stare at.'Monica gazed at her with wide eyes.'You mean, I suppose, that people...

Reader's Opinions

This is a somewhat odd book; a late 19th century work that centers on the emancipation of women, but is about that and more. "Odd women" are women who do not have any of the factors necessary to attract a husband - lacking either looks, or money, or class, or startion....
