

COMING HOME

Dead broke and newly homeless, Tallis Carrington is on the walk of shame to end all walks of shame. Back to Rock Bay, where he'd once ruled as high school aristocracy with his band of jocks, and tormented a freshman named James Barry. Until a scandal reduced his family's name to little better than a curse word. He needs a job, and fast, so he can put the town in his rearview mirror once again. But the people of Rock...

Reader's Opinions

Yall should know by now that I dont really write reviews. I read and rate and sometimes I write a rant or rambleso here goes. I was hoping to read a story exploring Lexs feelings of falling in love with his high school bully. I find that whole concept very fascinating. I wanted to read a story...

I loved this book! Very enjoyable read, Tally and Lex are so so perfect for each other :)I specially liked how Tally changed, how sweet and kind he really is, and so devoted to Lex. Loved the pace, there was never a dull moment for me and the sex...
