

THE FIRES OF BRIDE

Cailleach, the outermost island of the Utter Utters, is so remote that it only emerges from the mist every hundred years or so (ferry permitting). But what is it that seduces Maria, a fugitive artist, into staying so long? Her love affair with Catriona, clan chieftain, GP and witch? The magic touch of the elusive seaweed woman perhaps? Ina Isbister's cloudberry jam? Or could it...

Reader's Opinions

Marvelously, quirky fantasy along the lines of the 1980s film "Local Hero." One of the best novels around with fantasy elements and lesbian characters. Recommended.
