Peek Inside the Book

If there was anything that depressed him more than his own cynicism, it was that quite often it still wasn't as cynical as real life. Terry Pratchett, Guards! Guards! //

Reader's Opinions

Hooray for Sir Terry Pratchett!! I submit that the best way to rate a Discworld book is with a smile meter. As you read, imagine that there is a meter whose arrow jumps when you smile, moves further right when you chuckle and spikes into the red eleven when you laugh out loud. Pratchett's 1989 Discworld novel (his 8th in the series and...

8.5/10A highly enjoyable entry into the Discworld series and a start of a new sub-series, "The Watch" series. This is basically Terry Pratchett does the police with his unique style of humour and insight. If you've read any previous novels in the Discworld series you know what to expect, if you haven't then this is a great entry point. For,...
