

THE PERFECT SCANDAL

He was a dangerous impostor, but his kisses told the truth. . . . "We will be a shocking couple," she said. Miss Savannah Merriweather was determined to marry for love. Instead, her ambitious mother packed her off to London to wed a nobleman advertising for a rich American bride. Savannah returned to New York with her "husband," the Earl of Castellane, whose impeccable credentials promised her mother entree to New York's highest society. Only Savannah knew her "husband" was a fraud. But he saved...
