

BLOOD RED

Declan Collins never wanted to be a vampire. He certainly never wanted to be a pawn in his Maker's games of cat and mouse. When their hunt for a rare and elusive breed of werewolf leads them straight to Declan's mate, however, it's game over. Lincoln Chastain never imagined the infamous Red Siren would turn out to be his intended. He can't deny the attraction between them, but nor can he allow a pretty face to distract him from his quest for retribution. Sometimes, things aren't as black...

Reader's Opinions

I rarely give one star reviews, but in this case I felt I had to. The story was all over the place, and while I couldn't spot grammatical errors, the writing was very confusing. Also, though I live Red Riding Hood, in this case I thought the parallels were unnecessary, as they too were inconsistent. The bare bones of the story, if explained...

-1 stars!!! clearly read something different from everyone else. I must have downloaded a defective copy of this novelette. The book I read was trite, the characters wooden, the dialogue boring, and the chemistry between the 'love' interests about...
