Reader's Opinions

This dark book explores both the most base and noble aspects of human nature. It tells the story of Donal Cam O'Sullivan's terrible march of escape after the disastrous battle of Kinsale in 1601/02. It is amazing that, in the face of complete despair and the betrayals of their countrymen, the survivors managed to retain enough hope...

I just love her books, they are fast reading and the history is just fascinating.
