Peek Inside the Book

Martha asked me if I thought Communion could be received through the womb. I had to admit it was a new question for me (while thinking to myself that it would make a great question for ordination exams). She said she'd received Communion the previous Sunday in church and took some comfort in believing that the symbols of Christ's body and blood had made their way to...

Reader's Opinions

Bought this for $0.25 at a secondhand store but was worth so much more. Well crafted writing that shows a depth of understanding of Scripture and modern living.
