

MARVEL MASTERWORKS: THE FANTASTIC FOUR, VOL. 5

In the early 1960s, the Fantastic Four billed itself as "the world's greatest comics magazine," and issues 41-50, collected here in the FF's fifth volume in the Marvel Masterworks series, actually live up to that lofty claim. A trademark of the Stan Lee-Jack Kirby years was their epic sweep, and these 10 issues encompass three different story arcs that are themselves connected. Issues 41-43 feature the Frightful Four (the Wizard, the Sandman, the Trapster, and Madam Medusa) in an elaborate plot to brainwash the...

Reader's Opinions

This is one of the very best of the Marvel Masterworks collections. A lot is going on in this one, from the long awaited wedding between Reed & Sue, to the first appearance of the Silver Surfer, to the groups first mega-showdown with Galactus: You know you are dealing with a real menace when the bad guy has the confidence to slap the...

The early Fantastic Four comics are definitely among the best of Marvel in the 60s. And this collection introduces Galactus!
