

WHOLLY TRINITY

Love, marriage, and a family—it all sounds so simple, but not for an outlaw threesome. When John O'Brien met the love of his life, Paul Atwater, he knew they were meant to be together forever. Years later, when he met the girl of his dreams, Beth Mitchell, he was equally confident of their mutual destiny. Now that the three lovers have established a successful triadic relationship, what's to...

Peek Inside the Book

Amazing how you need to pass a test to drive a car, but any ignorant asshole with a functional dick can become a father. Sharyn Hosier, Wholly Trinity //

Reader's Opinions

This was a very good series of books. I loved the three main characters, they were all so different and yet blended so well together. They endured many hiccups along the way but by pulling together they were able to get through it all. I'd recommend this series and i'll definitely read this author again.
