

BUMPETY BUMP!

What is the little red hen up to? First she follows a boy and his grandpa to the potato plants (and the carrots and onions, too). Then she follows them through the garden to the tomatoes and the lettuce and the cucumbers! And look! There she is, watching them pick the bright, ripe berries. Yum! But where is the little red hen going now? And what will...

Reader's Opinions

I picked this book up off the shelf just to round out the number of library books we were getting. I didn't hold high expectations for it (I mean, the art work was kind of odd, after all). Little did I know that my boys would think this book was the crown jewel of the library. They bring it to me to read to them at least once a day,...
