

WRONGFUL DEATH

Nothing about Jeffrey Tashard's death was what it seemed! Based on the author's sixteen years as a litigator, "Wrongful Death" is a contemporary legal thriller about an attorney who finds himself trapped between doing what is right and doing what is allowed as he struggles to learn what really happened to Jeffrey Tashard. And as Attorney Scott Blakely was about to discover, this extraordinary case might...

Reader's Opinions

Mr. Price strikes again with a compelling legal thriller. Wrongful death is very well written. The dialogue is good (with some nice bits of humor) and the narratives are well done with descriptions that allow for great visualization. The main characters are very well...

I read this and was blown away. I couldn't put it down. I definitely plan to read the author's other book.
