

INAPPROPRIATE MEN

Sidney Stein was once a happily married woman. Now no longer happy in her marriage, she finds herself drawn into an illicit affair with an older man, Geoffrey Fahl. But their relationship becomes a lot more important to her than she would like it to. Knowing that Geoffrey is the wrong man for her, Sidney decides it's time to turn her life around. Fully separated from her husband and breaking ties with Geoffrey, Sidney dives right...

Reader's Opinions

There are things I really liked about this book, and a few things I didn't so much. A few of the poems were a bit long for my attention span, and a few parts were a bit tedious to get through. But I enjoyed parts of Stacey's...

I picked up this book loving the premise. When I started reading I was completely enthralled and couldn't for the life of me put the book down. Then as the main character who was a married woman who was having an affair with an older married man started to waste my...
