Peek Inside the Book

It scared her to think that one day in the future, she might not be able to remember every little detail of the things that had mattered the most to her. She wished there was a way to store them, emotions and all, in a jar, and then she could screw the lid on tight and peer at them through the glass. Isabelle Broom, A Year and a Day //

Reader's Opinions

A story of three couples with one destination in common .. Prague. This is a city that had been on my wishlist to visit before I became too ill to travel, the magic of this book has shown me exactly what I have missed. The scenes, aromas, friendliness of the locals all sparked my imagination. Set prior to Christmas I could almost touch...

This starts off with a woman going to throw herself off a bridge in Prague. Then.....he arrives.Next chapters take you back in time.We have three different women, different times.I found this a...
