Reader's Opinions

All of humanity comes through this bar and they all come before Nick, who helps everyone. This is a well crafted story of somewhat mythic proportions, of a somewhat impotent god and of the 20th century. Saroyan's brilliance at creating atmosphere makes up for the somewhat dated dialog and plots in this nearly perfect play. It is a play,...

What does it say about a book when, after reading an authors introduction, I decide the guy was an arrogant, long-winded narcissist? William Saroyan might have been a wonderful person. How he comes across in the introduction of The Time of Your Life, however, is how I describe him above. Im not actually sure Ive ever before felt like...
