

A MULTITUDE OF SINS

Father Shane Barrett always thought his path in life was certain; to live a simple life in service to God. Upon receiving a new appointment to St. Matthew's, everything Father Shane thought he knew comes into question as he's faced with an irresistible temptation in the form of Sister Mary Elizabeth. As both struggle with newfound longings, they must each decide if they can withstand temptation, or if they will give in to their most primal desires.

Reader's Opinions

Flipping utterly awesome. It took only took a few hours (maybe) to devour this. After reading a few reviews and I knew I had to add this to my TBR shelf. Not to mention the subject seems so taboo. Before getting into my view on this I think that it should be said that this story may be found offensive by some Catholic or religious people....
