Reader's Opinions

A great ready reference with cleaning advice. A lot of the advice I already knew, but I liked that it had solutions for making your own simple cleaners out of household chemicals, such as vinegar and baking soda. Tips on removing tough carpet stains using hydrogen peroxide also interested me. I'll have to try it sometime. Not really...

This book really helps in a pickle - especially if you use natural cleaning techniques that may or may not involve baking soda and vinegar, after accidentally bleaching something. DON'T DO THAT!
