Reader's Opinions

I read this a number of years ago so the date read is a guess. I was reminded of it as I was entering "Hiroshima". When you drive on I-25 south of Albuquerque you can "see" the Trinity site off in the distance to the East. There is a place in New Mexico called "Jornada del Muerto"(Death Journey) that's close by. Thoroughly engrossing...

An extended Time magazine-style piece chronicling the preparation for, and the testing in New Mexico in 1945 of the first atomic bomb. In 1965 when this was written, Lamont's behind-the-scenes, you-are-there description of the minting of the two-sided Atomic Age/Cold War coin humanized the effort and afforded perspective to the Lucies...
