

THE SWEETEST KISS

Lord Trey Worthington isn't about to give his heart to a woman. He does not want a marriage like his parents. But when his mother brings in a childhood acquaintance into the home to sponsor into society, Trey has to get Miss Faraday trained properly. The more he gets to know Judith, the more he yearns for something he doesn't dare reach for. Judith is after a faithful husband—something Trey has been convinced most of his life he'll never...

Why did love have to hurt so much? Marie Higgins, The Sweetest Kiss //

Reader's Opinions

This was a good clean book, with some sexual tension. At first I thought Judith the heroine would be one of those overly head strong, big mouth heroines that I cant standshe started...
