Reader's Opinions

good general resource. as suggested, i read appendix one first, an orientation to French academic culture, which helps to situate the names, themes, people, referred to in brief thought-bios, later, third. before this, second, i read...

I would give it 4.5 stars but Goodreads won't allow it so I try to push it from 4.33 to 4.5 instead. Concise and well told, this is a book that not only deal with thoughts and thinkers but also the society that facilitated them. However, Schrift seems to rush the fifth chapter, 'After Structuralism.' There is next to nothing about Derrida...
