Peek Inside the Book

Don't find a nice guy. You'd get bored, and he wouldn't know what to do with you. So... yeah, be pissed at me if you want, but you--you're one-of-a-kind..." He paused, unsure of what he was really trying to say. "So just find a guy that gets that, you know?" He rolled his eyes at the longest voicemail in history. "Or just ignore me, because it's none of my business, anyway. Elizabeth Hunter, The Genius and the Muse //

Reader's Opinions

I liked the premise of this story, but not the delivery. I got bored.

4.5 stars! This was a surprise read for me, I didn't expect to like it so much or to finish reading it in 2 days (I have other priorities people =). Considering that the book contains 2 love stories you would think that for a 223 pages book it will be too cramped or that the stories may have suffered. But no, the author was able to weave...
