

INVOLUNTARY WITNESS

"Carofiglio writes crisp, ironical novels that are as much love stories and philosophical treatises as they are legal thrillers."—The New Yorker
"Raises the standard for crime fiction. Carofiglio's deft touch has given us a story that is both literary and gritty—and one that speeds along like the best legal thrillers. His insights into human nature—good and bad—are breathtaking." —Jeffery Deaver

Peek Inside the Book

Melissa arrived punctually a few minutes after eight. She was on foot and her attire was an incitement to crime. Gianrico Carofiglio, Testimone inconsapevole //

Reader's Opinions

I read Involuntary Witness in two days and after about the mid-point, I couldn't put it down. Gianrico Carofiglio has found a winning combination: a troubled protagonist, lawyer Guido Guerrieri; a sympathetic defendant, Abdou Thiam of Senegal; and a fascinating inside view of the Italian criminal justice system. I wrote a status update...

Questo libro mi ha provocato reazioni contrastanti. Nel senso che trovo che l'intreccio sia a tratti dispersivo, dato che non di rado la questione legale di Abdou rimane ai margini della vicenda; lo stile tende ad essere minimalista e irritante (mi riferisco all'abuso di espressioni come "eccetera", per non dilungarsi in descrizioni);...
