

ISLAND LIFE

Duncan McKenzie is a marine biologist working on a small, sparsely populated island in the Scottish Outer Hebrides. The island has an indigenous population of only six people except for a team of archeology students who are opening up what seems to be an early Neolithic burial mound. Two lighthouse keepers, Dick (a young trainee), and Tom (an old hand with many years of experience), are disturbed in their work by the appearance of a dazed female...

Reader's Opinions

This is a creepy thriller set on a remote island off the coast of Scotland. Farm animals start getting mutilated and their hearts removed, just the odd one to start, but things soon get rather disturbing! Strange creatures disturbed by an archaeological student dig, soon become stronger and start picking off the locals, leaving a trail...
