Reader's Opinions

3.5 stars. Good short m/m fairy tale about a guy who can convince locks to open... but there have to be doors for his talent to work.

A modern day retelling of the Rapunzel tale and not as cheesy as the title implies. I really liked the premise of the world and the idea behind it ('it's not what you have as a talent, it's what you do with it'). But at the end, the story was too short and the ending fell flat. Still, a fun read. 3+
