

FOR NICK

Zachary Drake had love in his life--and tragically lost it. He knows it won't come his way again. Andie Parker would do anything for the love of her life. Even marry a total stranger. In spite of the unorthodox manner in which Zach and Andie come together, there is no denying that things are unexpectedly good between them, taking them both by surprise. However, when secrets come between them--and trust does not--Andie soon finds herself vowing to never make the...

Reader's Opinions

I cant seem to run away from chick-lit novels. Some are really cheesy, some soppy, some with more drama than Days of Our Lives and most are really run-of-the-mill. Then why do I still read them? I guess in a world where divorces are on the rise and people change partners at the rate they change clothes, such books console you and convince...

'For Nick' is a page-turner that you will want to read in one sitting. You won't be able to put it down, at least I couldn't. There are many facets to this story. Intrigue, anger, unbelievable emotional gut-wrenching pain, heartache, misunderstandings, but beneath it all a deep abiding love that is pure and beautiful even though it...
