

THE HUMBLEBEE HUNTER: INSPIRED BY THE LIFE AND EXPERIMENTS OF CHARLES DARWIN AND HIS CHILDREN

On a beautiful day, the last thing Etty wants to do is sit inside baking honey cake. She'd much rather be outside exploring with her father, Charles Darwin. Many are familiar with Darwin's theory of evolution, but few know Darwin the family man. In writing The Humblebee Hunter, Deborah Hopkinson relied on research to create a lyrical fictional account of Charles Darwin at home with his children, discovering the wonders of their own back yard. Told from the perspective of Darwin's daughter Etty, the...

Reader's Opinions

Charles Darwin's daughter Henrietta tells of her father, the wonderful experiments he conducted (some of which the family helped with), and how she loved listening to his stories of his adventures in faraway lands and the wonderful creatures he saw there. I really enjoy the premise of this story, inspired by the fact that Darwin's wife,...
