Peek Inside the Book

He imagined the world without men. Cities would be reclaimed by nature and overgrown until, hundreds of years hence, they would look much like the mysterious ruins sticking out of the jungles of Asia and South America. Ruins, relics, no more. He honestly did not believe the entire race would be exterminated, just the lions share. What was...

Reader's Opinions

Tim Curran's The Hive follows a group of scientists and technicians wintered-in at an Antarctic research station and the horrors they experience following the discovery of a dead pre-human culture that may not be as dead as it first appeared. I enjoyed this book overall. The book is a nice change of pace from the onslaught of zombie...
