Reader's Opinions

Tired of being a princess, the youngest of three sisters throws her crown out the window and finds happiness working in the royal kitchen and pigsty.Reading PracticeBook Level: 3.3 Interest Level: Lower Grades (LG K-3)...

The story of a princess that wants nothing to do with the pampered royal life that she was born into, this story is a gender-role bender with a strong message of being yourself even when the world doesn't back you up. The biggest change comes not from the unyielding protagonist princess, but from her father who learns to accept that...
